7430 Review of Human Subject Research

The College shall, in accordance with the ethical principles and guidelines established in the Belmont Report from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, review all research proposals involving the participation of human subjects.

Adopted 06/12/2017