

As per Wyoming Statute, all employees are given one hour to vote in all local, state, national, or special elections for which they may legally vote by age and registration. This time is given at the mutual convenience of the supervisor and the employee.

---

Adopted 07/19/2006