5550 Break-in-Service

When an employee leaves the College and is rehired within six months of the termination date, they shall not experience a break-in-service. Years of service shall continue from where they were on the termination date. The time away from the College shall not count toward years of service.

Adopted 07/19/2006